Dear Ms. Guilfoyle:

Oversight Democrats have been investigating potential corruption, self-dealing, and abuses of power during and prior to your tenure as Ambassador to the Hellenic Republic.[1] While the Trump Administration's failed policies have made life increasingly unaffordable for the public, reporting alleges that you used your government role to accept lavish gifts from foreign actors, solicit favors from private individuals in exchange for wielding your influence in the Trump Administration, and circumvent established processes that prevent corruption.[2] Voters gave Congressional Democrats a sweeping mandate to root out corruption and ensure that the government is accountable to the people. We intend to act on that mandate in the 120th Congress by conducting the critically important oversight essential for legislative reform. Oversight Democrats demand that you preserve all related records, communications, and information pertaining to your tenure in the Trump Administration.

Prior to being confirmed by the Senate, you allegedly engaged in a pay-to-play scheme with a Republican donor in which you demanded $100,000 in exchange for access to senior Trump Administration officials with the promise of as much as a $1 million payoff later.[3] This scheme reportedly involved you and your producer Drew Lynch facilitating that same Republican donor's conversations with senior Trump Administration officials, including then-Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Billy Long, Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI)

Director Kash Patel, and FBI General Counsel Sam Ramer.[4] The Republican donor described your arrangement as a "quid pro quo."[5]

As ambassador, you appear to have been intent on leveraging your position to cash-in. In one instance, you allegedly bragged about your ties to two wealthy Greek businessmen and claimed that they bankrolled your travels.[6] In another instance, you reportedly developed a close partnership with a lobbyist for the Greek construction and energy firm Aktor Group and then repeatedly pushed for Balkan governments to hire Aktor despite the clear conflict of interest presented by your relationship with the lobbyist.[7]

Given the gravity of the allegations, Oversight Democrats intend to continue these investigations. We demand that you immediately respond to our prior request for information, preserve all records relevant in any way to these matters, and preserve all such materials on an ongoing basis. This request extends to official and personal communications that may be relevant to these matters, and to any such information in the possession of your agents, employees, and associated entities. Inform us immediately if you are or become aware of any attempt to destroy, conceal, or fail to preserve such information.

Americans should be secure in the knowledge that their government officials are focused on the public interest, not on using positions of power to enrich themselves and serve special interests. The American people have spoken, and they demand accountability.

Your employment status, whether with the federal government or not, does not affect the Oversight Committee's ability to pursue investigation. The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X. If you have any questions about this request, please contact Committee Democratic staff at (202) 225-5051. Thank you for your prompt attention to this request.[8]

Sincerely,

Robert Garcia
Ranking Member
